

Massachusetts Convention Guide

Town Convention

County Committees do not hold conventions but you can be elected to the town committee.

- See Massachusetts Precinct How to Guide

State Convention

The State Committee will determine when the convention is to be held and will issue a call with information on the time, place, and number of delegates for the convention.

Qualifications

- Registered Republican voter residing within the town

Process

- Your Town Committee will hold a pre-convention
- This is open to all registered Republicans residing within the Town
- You must be nominated and a voted in by a majority by those in attendance

Who to Contact

- State or County Representative: www.massgop.com

<http://www.precinctproject.us/>