

New York Convention Guide

County Convention

You can participate in your County Committee by being elected to the committee. See New York Precinct How to Guide.

State Convention/Judicial District Convention

The State Convention and Judicial District Convention elect delegates in the same manner. The Judicial District Convention is held to elect Justice of the State Supreme Court. One delegate and one alternative delegate are elected from each Assembly District. One delegate and one alternative delegate are additionally elected per two thousand five hundred votes cast for the Republican nominee in the previous Governor State Election.

Qualifications

- A registered Republican residing within the State/County.

Process

- Delegates to the State/Judicial Convention are elected at the State Primary
- Candidates must file with New York Board of Electors a Petition of Designation
  - Visit: <http://www.elections.ny.gov/RunningOffice.html> to find sample forms and determine how many signatures you will need.

Who to Contact

- State or District Representative: www.nygop.org

<http://www.precinctproject.us/>