

North Dakota

In North Dakota one Precinct Committeemen is elected per 250 votes cast for the party's presidential electors, governor, attorney general, or secretary of state in the precinct in the last general election. The Precinct Committeemen are elected for a two-year term.

Qualifications

- Registered Republican residing within the precinct.

Process

- Contact your local Precinct Committee members and express your interest in running.
- The Precinct Caucuses must be held on or before May 15th following the previous general election
- At the Precinct Caucuses Precinct Committeemen are elected by a majority vote

Who to Contact

- Your Precinct Committeeperson
 - Visit www.ndgop.com or local Republican Party website

Deadlines

- Check with local Republican Party to find out when the elections will be held and any deadlines.

<http://www.precinctproject.us/>