

Virginia Convention Guide

County Convention/Caucus

The County Central Committee can choose to call a convention or caucus to elect delegates to the State Convention. You must be a member of the County Committee. See Virginia Precinct How to Guide to find out

Qualifications

- Registered Republican residing within the county who orally or in writing support the Republican Party principles.

Process

- Members to the County Committee are elected by elected by the mass meeting, convention, or party canvass

State Convention

The State Convention is held the third week in May during Presidential election years. Each town is allotted 2 delegates plus one additional delegate for every 200 votes cast for the Republican Governor in the preceding election.

Qualifications

- Registered Republican residing within the state

Process

- Delegates are elected at their town caucus

Who to Contact

- State or District Representative: www.rpv.org
<http://www.precinctproject.us/>