

Wisconsin Convention Guide

County Caucus

The County Caucus is held to elect delegates to the State Convention. To participate in the County Caucus you can either be a part of the County Committee see Wisconsin Precinct How to Guide, or be in good standing with the County Committee.

Qualifications

- Registered Republican residing within the county who is in good standing with the Republican organization in their county

Process

- Notification will be sent out to the county
- Attend and vote in caucus

State Convention

The State Convention is called every year. One delegate absolute from each county is elected along with one delegate for every 250 Republican votes cast for Governor or President of the United States in the preceding election.

Qualifications

- A registered Republican residing within the county/state who is in good standing with the Wisconsin Republican Party

Process

- Delegates to the State Convention are elected at the County Caucus by members who are in good standing with the Republican party of Wisconsin.

Who to Contact

- State or District Representative: www.wisgop.org

<http://www.precinctproject.us/>