

Wyoming Convention Guide

County Convention

The number of delegates elected to County Conventions varies by county, check with local party to determine the number of delegates allotted.

Qualifications

- Registered Republican residing within the county

Process

- County Convention Delegates and alternatives are elected at their Precinct Caucus
- Nominations are taken by either the Precinct Committee member or County Chairmen
- Delegate Nominees are voted on by secret ballot
 - Must receive majority of votes to win
 - Must bring proof of residence or sign statement

State Convention

The State Central Committee will send out a notice of when the State Convention is to be held and the number of delegates each county is allotted.

Qualifications

- A registered Republican residing within the State/County.

Process

- Delegates to the State Convention are elected at their County Conventions by a majority vote
 - Alternatives are elected in proportion to the number of Delegates
 - Visit: <http://wygop.org/wp-content/uploads/2012/05/2012.bylaws.pdf> for full description of Wyoming GOP Bylaws

Who to Contact

- State or District Representative: www.wygop.org
<http://www.precinctproject.us/>