

Alabama Convention Guide

County Convention/Caucus

Your County Committee can choose to call a convention or caucus to elect delegates to the State Convention. You must be a member of the County Committee. See Alabama Precinct How to Guide to find out how to get involved in your County Committee.

Qualifications

- Registered Republican residing within the county who orally or in writing support the Republican Party principles.

Process

- Members to the County Committee are elected by a mass meeting, convention, or party canvass

Presidential Preference Primary

- The Presidential Preference Primary is held to elect delegates to the National Convention. If you are elected to your County Committee then you can be elected to the State Committee which allows you to participate in the Presidential Preference Primary.
- See: <http://codes.lp.findlaw.com/alcode/17/13/17-13-43>

Qualifications

- Registered Republican residing within the state

Process

- Delegates are elected by a primary ballot
- Candidates can list their Presidential preference on the ballot

Who to Contact

- State or District Representative: www.algop.org

<http://www.precinctproject.us/>