

Florida Convention Guide

Congressional District Committee

To get involved with your congressional committee visit: www.florida.gov or see Florida Precinct How to Guide

Qualifications

- Registered Republican residing within the congressional district.

Presidential Preference Primary

The Presidential Preference Primary is held to elect delegates to the National Convention. The Republican Party of Florida is allowed 114 delegates and 111 alternate delegates.

Qualifications

- Registered Republican residing within the state
- Must file a qualifying oath with the Chairmen of the Republican Party of Florida

Process

- 36 delegates and 36 alternate delegates are elected as Delegates at Large by the Executive Board of the Republican State Executive Committee.
- 75 delegates and 75 alternate delegates are elected from the congressional districts. Each district is allowed 3 delegates and 3 alternate delegates. They are elected by the State Committeemen, State Committeewomen and County Chairmen representing any county in each congressional district.
  - <http://www.cflgop.com/charlottegop/documents/PartyRulesofProcedure.pdf>

Who to Contact

- State or District Representative: www.florida.gov

<http://www.precinctproject.us/>